USERNAME & PASSWORD TROUBLESHOOTING TIPS

Do not assume your username is your e-mail address.

- You set your username when the account was originally created. If your e-mail isn't working as your username, you likely didn't set it that way!

Are you sure you're not already logged in?

- It is a common occurrence that learners are trying to follow password reset instructions while logged in! If you're on our website, look at the top right of the page. You're already logged in if you see your name instead of the login options.

Your browser may be filling in outdated or inaccurate login information.

- If you saved log in information to your browser, it is possible usernames and passwords are outdated or for another site entirely. Try to manually enter your username and password instead.
